On 4 Feb. 2004, al-Qaeda's Sahab Institute for Media Production released a new produced video entitled "Badr al-Riyadh: The Assault on the Crusader al-Muhaya Settlement and Discovering Important Details". The video is 01:31:08 in length. It focuses on the attack al-Qaeda carried out against the al-Muhaya housing compound in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia on 8 Nov. 2004 in which 18 people were killed and 120 injured. All images in this report are of stills from the actual video or previous al-Qaeda videos where noted. This is the eighth al-Qaeda video by Sahab and the fourth one to be released in the past six months.

The video contains statements from Osama bin Laden and other prominent jihadi leaders, such as the now deceased Chechen rebel commander Khattab, which all appear to be from older interviews and other videos. The video prominently features two of the participants in the al-Muhaya attack who were killed during the operation, Ali bin Hamid al-Mabadi al-Harbi and Nasser al-Khalidi. They are shown in a variety of settings including informal interviews. A video address from al-Qaeda field commander in Saudi Arabia, Abdul Aziz al-Moqrin, appears on the tape, as well as an audio address by Sheikh Abu Omar al-Saif.

A significant portion of the tape is focused on al-Qaeda's training activities in Saudi Arabia at the al-Battar camp. Multiple stills from these portions appear at the end of this report. Among the training demonstrated is IED construction, entries, SA-7 SAM and RPG use and disarmament techniques.

During the video al-Qaeda states that one of the reasons for targeting the al-Muhaya compound was to go after Arab Christians. This marks an expansion of al-Qaeda's targeting strategy and additional strikes against Arab Christian targets or those perceived to be affiliated with Arab Christians can be expected.

TURKI AL-DANDANI MARTYR UNIT

- The unit that carried out the al-Muhaya attack was called the Turki al-Dandani Martyr Unit. It's named after al-Qaeda member Turki al-Dandani who was killed by Saudi security forces on 3 July 2003. Two images of al-Dandani from the al-Qaeda video "The Martyrs of Confrontations on the Arabian Peninsula" are below. The second image is of al-Dandani after he was killed.

- Al-Dandani was wanted in Saudi Arabia for his alleged involvement in the May 2003 Riyadh attacks. He, along with three others were hiding in the mosque of an Imam in Soubar in southern Jawf, near the Yemeni border, when the mosque was stormed by Special Saudi police on 3 July 2003. He was killed in the firefight that ensued.

- Ali bin Hamid al-Mabadi al-Harbi was a participant in the 8 November 2003 al-Muhaya housing compound attack. He was one of the people in the vehicle that was carrying the vehicular-borne improvised explosive device (VBIED). He was killed in the attack.
- The first still shown above is of al-Harbi in an informal interview. The second still is from his martyrdom tape.
- “We sacrifice ourselves for the sake of establishing an Islamic state and to remove injustice against Muslims everywhere.”
- “Many youths are eager to carry out such martyrdom operations. In fact, these operations currently constitute an effective weapon against the enemies.”

- “The prophet, may God's peace and prayers be upon him – providing that when a dying person says something, then this is a will - ordered that the infidels be kicked out of the Arabian Peninsula. This is the base and the approach. We left for Bosnia in support of our brothers there. [words indistinct] Muslims who are persecuted and their scholars. We went there and then came back. So, we were imprisoned, tortured and thrown into cells. I was put in a cell for 15 months without any reason, except that I went to Bosnia. The brothers were tortured [word indistinct] and by stripping them of their clothes. One of the brothers told me that they stripped off all his clothes. One of the brothers said and all the brothers tell the truth, that he told the interrogator to fear God, but the interrogator told him to put God in the drawer, or something like that.”

PLANNING FOR THE AL-MUHAYA ATTACK

- The above still is shown while the video talks about the planning for the attack on the al-Muhaya housing compound.
- According to the video, the al-Muhaya compound was stormed within two-and-a-half minutes by an assault group that was specially trained for that purpose in a certain location in the Arabian Peninsula, which is frequently how the group refers to Saudi Arabia.

- A plate (shown above) carrying the number 314, which was a symbol for the number of Muslim fighters in the Badr battle, an early Muslim battle against the non-believers of Mecca, was attached to the front of the vehicle. It is unclear if this was left on for the operation. It was most likely removed after the video was made.
